NUMBER 72

Paris Commercial Club Outing a Grand Success.

At an early hour yesterday morning you could see that the crowd to be in Paris would be the banner crowd for years. When the time for the parade arrived, 11 o'clock, Main street was almost impassable, the sidewalks and every available space in doors and windows being crowded by women and children. Old Bourbon did herself proud and every precinct in the county was largely represented at the first annual outing of the Paris Commercial Club. President W. O. Hinton and every member of the Club should feel highly elated over the grand success of the outing.

The crowd at the Fair Grounds was estimated at from 5,000 to 8,000 people, the largest crowd ever seen upon the grounds.

The parade was formed in the rear of the court house, and was headed in fine style by Grand Marshall A. S. Thompson. The Paris Elks Band, the North Middletown Band and the Versailles Drum Corp. furnished excellent music for the occasion.

The thriving and busy little city of Versailles was well represented, and Woodford county should be proud of the sturdy and business looking citizens of her county seat. The Versailles delegation was headed by the Hon. Harry Schorberth and composed of about seventy-five of the leading business men of that city. They were accompanied by the Knights of Pythias drum corp. The Versailles delegation can rest assured that their city and county will always be given the glad hand by the citizens of Paris for we appreciate the coming of the Versailles Commercial Club more than we can tell now.

The speakers for the occasion were Hon. W. P. Kimmell, of Fayette, and Hon. Campbell Cantrill, of Scott. They were introduced in a happy manner by our own C. M. Thomas. Both gentlemen made speeches appropriate for the occasion and were warmly applauded.

The sack race was a tie, the prize being divided between Geo. Frakes and John Cantrill.

The greased pig was caught by Dick English.

The slow mule race was won by Clarence Argo.

The fat man race was won by Leer Stout, who was all out at the finish.

The lean man's race was captured by James Cantrill.

Walter Clarke won first premium in fancy turnout ring and Miss Mabel Rash second premium.

One of the most notable features of the big day was the absence of a delegation from the Lexington Commercial Club.

The display of fireworks in the rear of the court house last night drew several thousand people out. It was one of the most beautiful sights ever witnessed in Paris.

That Jackson Baby.

At no time probably since it was reported that Dr. Brooks voted the Republican ticket has there been so much excitement as has been caused by the announcement that Manager Jackson, of the Paris Grand, would give away a baby at the opera house on the night of August 1. The coupons given away nightly are being carefully hoarded, and many schemes are being worked by those who desire to win it.

The various merchants are also becoming interested and many have donated presents to be given to the little waif. Among these are the following: A. J. Winters & Co., a beautiful diamond ring; Geo. McWilliams, an elegant pair of white kid shoes; Twin Brothers, a beautiful baby cap; Dr. Oberlofer, the latest thing in a nursing bottle. Many others have promised donations, so by the time the future home of the baby is settled it will be the possessor of a very elaborate outfit.

It having become a matter of rumor that Manager Jackson intended giving away a baby pig, on Wednesday night he announced that such was not the case. This rumor probably originated from the fact that a pig was given away in Maysville some time since. Mr. Jackson wishes to deny very strongly this rumor and says he intends to give away a real live white baby.

The News has been asked by several ladies to investigate and publish the result. In company with Manager Jackson we visited the home of the baby Wednesday night. It is about as sweet and pretty a little darling as any mother would wish to own, and will without doubt bring sun-tine into the home of the lucky winner.

A Well-Dressed Man Is Always a Pleasant Sight and Generally Gets the Second Look.

Clothes do Not Make the Man,

But they are a pretty good indication of his worth, for they reflect his respect for himself and the men he associates with. No man can overrate the value of being well-dressed. Correctness in one's attire marks the man of thought, and many a man owes his success to his appearance.
